

Regulations, Standards & Best Practices

---

- Fall Protection information can be categorized into regulations, standards, best practices and manufacturers instructions.
  - Regulations are laws that employers must abide to ( OSHA ).
  - Standards are voluntary consensus recommendations for Manufacturers of safety equipment ( ANSI ).
  - Best practices are work specific practices that are proven to provide a safe work environment.
  - Manufacturers instructions are provided for specific guidance for that products proper use.

